

PARSONS YIELDS AFTER STUDY OF "HUGHES TEST"

"Large Majority of New York County Delegates Will Vote for Governor," He Says.

WOODRUFF WAVERING.

Still Talks of "Leaving It to Convention," but Pledges Support to Nominee.

On consideration of the result of yesterday's test vote at the primaries Congressman Herbert Parsons, president of the County Republican Committee, saw his way clear this afternoon to make plain that the vote of New York County would go to Gov. Hughes at the State convention in Saratoga. This removes the last doubt regarding the probable attitude of this county, and practically the last lingering doubt regarding the speedy renomination of Gov. Hughes.

Although Congressman Parsons is regarded as the President's mouthpiece in local politics, he betrayed no overwhelming impulse to climb aboard the Hughes bandwagon, even after word came from Oyster Bay that a renomination would give great satisfaction at Sagamore Hill. Parsons had been one of the original anti-Hughes leaders from the time it first began to seem probable that the present Governor might seek a second term. Last night, after it became certain that Hughes had carried a majority of the Manhattan Assembly districts where the Hughes strength had been tested, Mr. Parsons was inclined to temporize.

But when he saw an Evening World reporter, to-day he had experienced a complete change of heart and gave out this statement:

Parsons' New Statement.

"As a result of the test vote, it is made certain that a considerable majority of the enrolled Republicans of this county prefer the renomination of Gov. Hughes. We took this test to put this question directly up to the voters, and, if their wishes were explicit, to act accordingly.

"The test shows that there is some bitter opposition, but, in view of the controlling sentiment in favor of the Governor which the test has made clear, it is my opinion that a large majority of the delegates from New York County to the State Convention will favor his renomination at the head of our State ticket."

State Chairman Tim Woodruff, who lives in Brooklyn, where the test vote, on the other hand, developed a strong anti-Hughes bulge, showed signs of wavering but he did not succumb to the inevitable with the agility that his recent co-conspirator, Mr. Parsons, was showing. After stating that he would confer with Mr. Parsons regarding the best course to be pursued for the good of the party he wrote a long, careful statement, from which the following is an extract:

"I expect to consult with the Brooklyn leaders during the day and by a careful analysis of the test votes taken yesterday to determine just what the sentiment and therefore what the situation is relative to the question of Gov. Hughes' renomination. . . . The magnitude of the opposition thus far manifested to Gov. Hughes in New York County, and particularly in Kings County, certainly justifies the position which I have taken, that we would have to await the gathering of the delegates at Saratoga to enlighten us as to the exact situation in all the Assembly districts which are the units of representation."

"I have, of course, recognized the very large and earnest sentiment in his favor among many classes, but could not be blind to the opposition which, for the first time, was made evident yesterday to the public."

"Loyal Support for Nominee." "The nominee, whoever he may be, Gov. Hughes or any one else, will receive the most loyal and earnest support of the State organization and of every county organization affiliated with it."

Gov. Hughes, who came to town yesterday especially to vote in the primaries, stayed over night at the Hotel Astor, which is his present city residence.

"I have no comment to make," the Governor said to-day when a reporter for The Evening World saw him in his rooms.

"I am resolved to say nothing in an interview. Anything that I may desire to say will go to the people in the form of a public speech."

It was learned that before retiring last night the Governor made this somewhat cryptic remark:

"This so-called test vote has its serious side, and if I were a disinterested party I might indicate the points that possess particular interest."

Hughes at Orangeburg.

After holding short conferences in the forenoon with Congressman Herbert Parsons and Henry W. Taft, brother of the Presidential candidate, the Governor, accompanied by Col. George Curtis Treadwell, his military secretary, left at 11 o'clock for Orangeburg to make a speech at the Rockland County Fair. Returning here to-night, he will be heard at the Interborough Fair, at Donnan Hills, Staten Island, at 3 P. M. to-morrow. He will also address the Playground Association, in this city. Friday he returns to Albany.

The Vote by Districts.

Manhattan and the Bronx gave 3,844 for Hughes, 3,624 against. Hughes' majority, 220. Brooklyn, however, returned a majority of 1,241 against the Governor, so that in the total he was left behind.

The vote by districts in Manhattan was as follows:

District	Hughes	Anti-Hughes
Second	90	350
Sixth	315	207
Ninth	198	690
Eleventh	198	316
Twelfth	621	215
Thirteenth	125	563
Fourteenth	494	410
Fifteenth	518	292
Sixteenth	347	283
Total	3,844	3,624

Majority for Hughes, 220.

In the six Brooklyn districts the results were:

District	Hughes	Anti-Hughes
First	107	322
Fourth	173	176
Sixth	591	406
Eighth	242	300
Tenth	158	621
Twelfth	61	639
Total	1,561	2,94

Majority against Hughes—1,241.

Only a small proportion of even the enrolled voters in the test districts took the trouble to go to the primaries. The nine Manhattan and Bronx districts have an enrolled vote of 21,417, whereas only 7,463 expressed their opinion on the Governor, or a little more than one-third.

The heaviest vote against Mr. Hughes was cast in the downtown districts, including the Second, Sixth and Ninth, while Harlem and the Bronx were strongly in his favor.

PARKER IS NOT WILLING TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR

Judge Declares He Has No Desire to Ever Again Hold a Public Office.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Before leaving for New York, at 12:30 o'clock to-day, Judge Alton B. Parker took cognizance of a report that he would be willing to make the race for Governor of the State of New York at the approaching election, and said in so many words that he was not so inclined. He made especial reference to the headlines published over an interview he granted to the Washington correspondent of a New York paper. Judge Parker said: "I am not willing to run for Governor of New York. I did not feel that the situation and the question presented justified me in saying more than that it is my desire never again to hold public office. My friends, I felt, would understand that I said precisely what I meant, and my answer was intended to inform them and no one else."

Judge Parker will entertain Mr. Bryan next Sunday.

585 "Model" Suits $18 and $20 Values $13.50

Many are single garments; the largest lots are about 7 or 8 of a kind; nearly all are what are known as "sample sets"—i. e., four suits.

These garments present the very best workmanship from one of the Brill directed tailoring organizations. They present an assortment of models showing the most recent style ideas—over 25 are shown.

The fabrics—numbering over 100—are the smartest possible, selected to show every garment to the best advantage.

The fabrics include high standard velours, Saxony cassimeres, smart chevrons, flannels and unfinished worsteds.

The colorings include the new Tans, Olives, Smokes and Browns, as well as Grays, neat dark mixtures and several Blue shades in various weaves.

As this is to be a season of "stripes," you will find here all the correct stripes in single, double and triple effects.

Sizes are regular 34 to 40 inches chest.

None of these suits is less than $18 value; many are values even over $20.
